

READING BLUE COAT

An Independent Day School for Boys with a Co-Educational Sixth Form

TEACHER OF ENGLISH

Founded in 1646, Reading Blue Coat is a leading independent day school of 785 pupils; 705 boys aged 11 – 18 and a further 80 girls in the co-educational sixth form. The School is located on a beautiful 46 acre campus in the village of Sonning, just outside Reading.

The School employs over 170 staff, of whom 50% are academic staff. The School provides a stimulating, friendly and supportive atmosphere in which each pupil can realise his or her full intellectual, physical and creative potential.

An enthusiastic and inspiring English teacher with outstanding subject knowledge is required from September 2020 in this excellent department. You will teach at GCSE and A level.

The successful candidate will have energy, drive and great ideas, whether as an experienced teacher of English, or an able NQT who can to meet the demands of a thriving English department.

Our teachers seek to encourage both class and individual study beyond the requirements of the curriculum.

You will be expected to contribute to the co-curricular offerings of the department and the wider life of the School, to which your energy, warmth and pastoral instincts will lend themselves.

The School provides a stimulating and vibrant environment in which to teach, and you will join a highly committed and enthusiastic academic team.

Reading Blue Coat School has been frequently recognised by the Daily Telegraph as one of the top ten independent schools offering the best value in the UK.

Rented single room accommodation during the first year of employment may be available on campus if required.
