

READING BLUE COAT

A Co-Educational Independent Day School for Students aged 11-18

TEACHER OF GEOGRAPHY Full-time or Part-time

Founded in 1646, Reading Blue Coat is a leading independent day school of circa 800 pupils from ages 11 to 18. The School is located on a beautiful 46-acre campus in the village of Sonning, just outside Reading.

The School employs more than 180 staff, of whom 50% are academic staff, and provides a stimulating, friendly and supportive atmosphere in which each pupil can realise his or her full intellectual, physical, and creative potential.

We are looking for an enthusiastic and inspiring Geography specialist to join us from September 2024 in this excellent department. You will teach at all stages of the School, including the Pearson/Edexcel International GCSE course (IGCSE) and the Cambridge International A Level syllabus.

The department has a reputation for excellence in teaching and learning and a record of examination success. During summer 2023, 82% of candidates achieved A*, A or B at A Level, whilst 93% of students gained at least a grade 7 at IGCSE level. Geography is very well resourced and popular at the School.

You will contribute to the co-curricular offerings of the departments and the wider life of the School, to which your energy, warmth and pastoral instincts will lend themselves.

It is likely that you will hold a degree in Geography. Applications are welcome from NQTs and those completing their PGCE qualification.

Reading Blue Coat offers an exceptional working environment and an attractive rewards package, including excellent benefits such as a pension scheme; free meals; extensive staff discounts; tax saving cycle to work and car leasing schemes; free sports and leisure facilities; Employee Assistance Programme; and a strong commitment to professional development.
